

WINTER PERIOD RATE INCREASE

The NHEC Board of Directors has approved a rate increase effective with bills rendered November 1, 2016. The increase will result in an overall bill increase of 14.2%, or $12.69 per month, for a typical residential member using 500 kilowatt-hours (kWh) per month.

Why Do Rates Go Up in Winter?

The driver of winter electric prices is the cost of natural gas delivery into New England. Nearly half of the electricity produced in New England is generated by natural gas. A continuing lack of adequate gas pipeline capacity into New England means that power producers will be competing again this winter with home heating for limited natural gas supplies. This causes a significant winter increase in the price of natural gas delivered to New England, which corresponds to an increase in the price of wholesale electricity.

NHEC FOUNDATION GRANT WILL FUND FREE SMOKE ALARM INSTALLATIONS

A $10,000 grant from the NHEC Foundation will help the American Red Cross of New Hampshire & Vermont install 600 smoke alarms in the homes of 200 Co-op members.

The Home Fire Preparedness Campaign is working to target homes that do not have smoke alarms. Nationally, the American Red Cross aims to reduce the number of fire deaths and injuries in the U.S. by 25 percent by visiting more than 1.6 million homes to install smoke alarms, replace smoke alarm batteries, complete home safety checklists and help families and individuals develop a disaster plan.

“Home fires are the biggest disaster threat facing New Hampshire families today,” said Lloyd Ziel, Chief Communications Officer at the American Red Cross of NH & VT. “With the help of organizations like New Hampshire Electric Cooperative, we can help reduce that threat for thousands of residents.”
